NINE STUDENTS REPRIMANDED FOR DOW SIT-IN
Yes, We Would Do It Again' Vow Participants of Dead Week Action

By WAYNE RASCATI
EG Staff Writer

"Yes, we would do it again!" was the answer EL GAUCHO received when it questioned seven of the students who were involved in last month's sit-ins against Dow Chemical about whether or not they would participate in another one despite the sanctions they received from A.S. Judicial. One student told Judicial that he would, "unless they should show me something better."

Defending the position of Judicial Board, Chairman Lisa Fahs commented: "A.S. Judicial demonstrated its flexibility in that all demands of the people involved were granted, i.e. tapes were made of each interview, faculty advisors were permitted to be present at the interview (however none were actually there), and each one was given the option to have the case handled last December or in January. In addition to this, presidents have to make prior arrangements with the board in order to speak at the interviews..."

Among his complaints Stamos cited the fact that neither were they supplied with copies of the agendas and the reason for suspensions, the nine students who had received a suspended suspension from a warning to a suspended suspension. A tenth student, Jim Greffer, who also received a severe censure sentence. Two additional persons, both non-students, were also involved in the demonstration.

"As a voice in administrative and academic matters on each of the nine campuses of UC," contends A.S. President Greg Stamos, "I am due for their attention by the Regents..." Apparently, the Dual December 4 5 sit-in against Dow did not involve the activities of any organization, including campus administration. (Continued on p. 8, col. 2)

Cal Legislation Faces Problems; Session Seen To Be Unproductive

(UPI)—An election-year legislature—facing most of the same problems as it faced in 1967—convenes today at noon, but the political realities of 1968 offer dim hopes of their solution.

Some legislative leaders expect the session to be shorter than last year, when the law makers were in the Capitol a record 293 days. Others foresee a session prolonged by electioneering.

And most lawmakers concede privately the session probably will be relatively unproductive—marked more by what is said than what is done. And what isn't done.

What the 65 assemblymen and 40 senators will do, though, is approve a state budget to run California's government for the fiscal year beginning July 1. Most observers expect the budget to total about $4.44 billion dollars, up $400 million dollars for the current budget, and a record high despite Governor Ronald Reagan's economy drives.

Also, the lawmakers must agree on some plan to distribute 155 million in relief of county property taxes, ear-marked for that purpose by the June 4 primary election and the Republican and Democratic national conventions in August.

They probably will give themselves some free time to campaign before the general election in November, but washed-in somewhere will be a five-day veto session to reconsider the legislation Reagan has failed to sign into law.

Republican Reagan's major goal for the 1965 session was tax reform, a restructuring of the system to produce a $2 billion revenue which reflects growth of California's economy and will finance government without rate increases.

But prospects for tax reform this year are bleak. For one thing, Assemblyman John Veneman, a Republican from Modesto, will be at loggerheads with Reagan over the issue of payroll withholding of state income taxes.

Reagan strongly opposes it, but Veneman, one of the state's biggest boosters, says he will introduce withholding provisions early in the first week of the session.

Even Assembly Republican Caucus Chairman Don Mulford of Piedmont isn't optimistic about tax reform. Noting Veneman's and the Governor's stance, he said, "They have internal conflicts like that, a meaningful tax reform program may hit the rocks."

By all accounts, the 1968 legislature will be partisan, Assemblyman Veneman said, "The honeymoon we had last year is over. As long as the Governor is mentioned as a potential nominee for President it will stimulate partisanship. For this reason, it may not be too productive a session."

Mulford said he introduced a real—\"in his words—\"tough and tumble session between Reagan and the legislature's most powerful Democrat, Assembly Speaker JuanitaEnterprise."

All agreed it would be partisan.

BY A LL ACCOUNTS, THE 1968 LEGISLATURE WILL BE PARTISAN, AS VENEMAN SAID, "THE HONEYMOON WE HAD LAST YEAR IS OVER. AS LONG AS THE GOVERNOR IS MENTIONED AS A POTENTIAL NOMINEE FOR PRESIDENT IT WILL STIMULATE PARTISANSHIP. FOR THIS REASON, IT MAY NOT BE TOO PRODUCTIVE A SESSION."

MULFORD SAID HE INTRODUCED A REAL—IN HIS WORDS—"TOUGH AND TUMBLE SESSION BETWEEN REAGAN AND THE LEGISLATURE'S MOST POWERFUL DEMOCRAT, ASSEMBLY SPEAKER JUANITA ENTERPRISE."

ALL AGREED IT WOULD BE PARTISAN.
"I used to have to carry my books everywhere…

…Now I’ve learned to study 5 times faster"

Ever get the feeling you’re spending your whole life studying? Woody Mosten used to carry his books wherever he went—hoping to snatch some extra study time, just to keep up. Now he gets his studying done in about six hours per week. He’s a political science major—but breezes through his research at well over 1,000 words per minute.

This gives him plenty of time to play golf, bridge and tennis—he’s active in student government—does 3 radio shows on the campus station—and he holds a part-time job.

GRADES UP—TIME DOWN

Do his grades suffer from all of this extra-curricular activity? Not a bit. In fact, his average has gone up to 3.37—and 3.8 in his major. As Woody puts it,”I feel like a free human being now—instead of being constantly pressured by my study load. I even have time to read for pure pleasure again.” (He read Exodus in 3½ hours; have you tried it?) Woody Mosten reads about 6 times faster than the average adult. He learned this life-saving skill at the Reading Dynamics Institute.

What about you? How much time are you consuming in your studies? Two hours a day? Four? Six?

You, too can acquire the techniques of rapid reading—the ability to learn more in far less time. At Reading Dynamics, you can learn to read and study much faster (the average graduate reads 4.7 times faster)—with improved comprehension and with better ability to recall important material.

CLASSES HERE—NEAR THE CAMPUS

And now it’s even easier to take the Reading Dynamics course. A new Reading Dynamics Institute has been opened in Isla Vista. New classes are starting this month—making it possible for you to be reading and studying at least three times faster before finals.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS THIS WEEK

A series of free introductory demonstrations is being held this week. Clip out the schedule below and pick a time convenient for you. You’ll find out how you can gain the time to truly enjoy college life while knowing that your studies are covered better than ever before.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS

You will see a documented film that includes actual interviews with Washington Congressmen who have taken the course.

You will see a Reading Dynamics graduate read at amazing speeds from a book he has never seen before and tell in detail what he has read.

You will learn how we can help you to read and study faster, with improved comprehension and greater recall.

Eleven students cited for violations of University regulations occurring at the appearance of Dow Chemical during dead week last quarter have been given sentences ranging from a warning to a suspended suspension.

At issue in the cases was the judicial mechanism by which UCSB students are given due process for violations of University regulations. Some of those cited by the Dean of Students Office claimed that they were not being given due process. They had not been informed in writing of a specific charge nor had they been given sufficient time to prepare a defense, they claimed, the same agency that was charging them, namely the Dean of Students Office, was also to be the agency that would sit in final judgment.

At issue was the effectiveness of the A.S. Judicial Committee. It was pointed out that the deans were allowed to sit in while the student committee was deliberating, and that they had the power to change that decision should they so desire. It should be noted, however, that the judicial process, as it functions here, was not designed to provide all the aspects of court proceedings, with legal counsel, specific laws and their related punishments. Rather the system was designed to afford the student an opportunity of hearing before fellow students, and the opportunity of keeping his case from public scrutiny thereby avoiding embarrassment. When viewed in this light, it is a system that should be preserved for the students. The system, and the University regulations, are flexible enough to allow each case to be handled on its individual merits.

Yet it would seem that the role of the Dow demonsators the Administration and the Deans Office doggedly stuck to certain rules of procedure that they had themselves set up — rules that are supposed to be flexible.

The case in question publicly suggested that perhaps the best qualified blacks are the ones who want to learn and are creative.

We do not claim to be up to your standards, but we do not really want to be, for they are not black standards as well as white standards. However, we do want to learn and to be able to do things for ourselves. We do not take pride in getting welfare; (Furthermore, although this is a large percentage of blacks in the area, the smaller percentage of whites receive a far greater percentage of money.) We feel that to help erase our ignorance and our deficiencies. Well, the time to act is now. We are back here, again, to the question of who is ready. I think the time is ripe for people of all races to learn from one another. It is not the blacks who need help or guidance, but blacks and whites who need help or guidance. We know that some of you have been wrong all along.

If you learn something, pass it along, and be sure to take it home to your parents and friends. If, when speaking to some people, you get a negative reaction, do not give up, for we have a big job to do. We can make our campus community one which has the reputation of being open-minded, as in a class, for example, or any other place of that sort where we might learn.

Sometimes, whites expert too much on blacks. Some of us have suddenly opened up and expected to respond to you at once, it will never happen, because you are mistrusted, and with good reason, I might add. From the start, there has been a black protest going on. Last year, there was a law in Glendale prohibiting Negroes from being on the streets. That law was overturned. The black who received approximately 30,000 votes after saying in effect, that, "Blacks are better at certain things, and whites are better at others." (and other men like him) is getting more support daily for his so-called American Independence Party.

The time to act is now. Listen, learn, and ask questions; then go home and educate your parents, and friends. I was in the service for four years in an almost all white unit, and I was permanently disabled. I have nothing to do with my career, let alone any other career; we stopped in a cafe in Tulsa, Oklahoma, for coffee but they would not serve me—and people wondered why Ali (Cassius Clay) wouldn’t go. The heroes of the blacks are not the George Washingtons, but the Adam Clayton Powells. People think Powell should go to jail (he’s no saint, but neither are the other congressmen).

I am aware of the blacks, not the whites, for the blacks have read about it from Foner’s book, "Liberty or Death," and they tried to get me to cut the other, and not by throwing bottles and attacks. If there is not a great social change in America soon, I fear that within the next generation, the war in Vietnam will be small compared to the war in America.

In politics, the blacks are not impressed by token appointments to high offices, or by the representative offices such as Attorney General, Governor Stokes, and Mayor Hatcher. There is a new generation of blacks and whites, asking to learn and to be taught. They are trying to beat down the tides of hypocrisy and injustice. I applaud them, and suggest that blacks and whites communicate with them, for there is much that you can teach each other. Neither group should be afraid of the problems where there were none before.

I am appealing to the students of this campus to help one another to find solutions to our social problems. I feel that a black can help you understand, ask, He or she may or may not know the answer, but the least you can do is ask, and then try to respond if he can, or if he cannot, to refer you to someone else.

If there is any student, black or white, who can tutor in any subject, and would like to help someone, please contact the EOP office or the Dean of Students. Do not do it as a charitable act, but because it should be done. I think that the Administration, faculty, and Legistaltive council is trying to help solve our social problems but they need your help. If you have ever felt a desire to help your society, it may be now. Here is the chance to use your patriotism to help eradicate our collective ignorance and stupidity.

Spartan Scoring Spree Sinks Smaller Santa Barbara, 75-63

By LEE MARGULIES

A 51 point outburst in the final six minutes broke open an otherwise close contest as San Jose spoiled the Gauchos' conference debut, 75-63.

Leroy Jackson played brilliant basketball in a losing effort, pouring in 27 points with 11 field goals and 5 free throws. It was Jackson's three straight field goals which pushed the Gauchos to within two points (54-52) before the Spartans ran away with it.

John Meyer scored 14. In contrast, the Spartans, who upped their season record to 6-5 scored on an amazing 60 per cent of their field goals while getting 31 opportunities at the free throw line.

Jackson, however, and his teammates just weren't up to par Saturday night.

Foward Steve Rippie tallied 10 points, but alongside the Gauchos hit only 40 per cent of their floor shots and were 13 for 20 at the free throw line.

In contrast, the Spartans, who upped their season record to 6-5 scored on an amazing 60 per cent of their field goals while getting 31 opportunities at the free throw line.

The Gauchos were down only 23-28 at the intermission, but Junior guard Tim Holman, 6-1, scored 14 of which they made good getting 31 opportunities at the free throw line.

A NEW STROKE? - Three of the four swimmers in the picture seem to be doing the backstroke, but the swimmer in lane two appears to be attempting a new stroke. Have you ever tried swimming with your head under water and your knees leading the way? Actually it's a speed turn and action such as this can be seen this weekend when the Gauchos host the Pacific Coast Relays at BSC Saturday.

There were other fine performances from other Gauchos, Dave Gray won the 50 yard free style in 23.7, while teammate Jim Ranta swam the 100 individual medley relay in the time of 1:03.3. Andy King added a 2:22.7 victory in the 200 yard butterfly and Rock MacKenzie took individual honors in the diving event.

But the Gaecho frosh team wasn't quite as fortunate. In last year's meet they lost to the Buena contingent 49-46. This year they improved to a 52-52 tie, but they couldn't quite eek out a victory. Gordon Black was the Gachoos' only double winner, taking the 100 freestyle in 59.1 and the 200 freestyle in 1:52.3.

One school record materialized out of the Pacific Coast Relays and that came in the 200 yard freestyle relays. Although they took fourth place in the race, the team of Gordon Black, Jim Ranta, Dave Gray, and Tony Honig shattered the old record of 1:43.01 with a 1:29.8 clocking. The Gauchos' best performance came in the 400 yard individual medley relay where an 8:42.7 timing by Jim Ranta, Craig Hendrickson, Gordon Black, and Chuck Sink was good for second place. A team of Gray, Spink, Ken Yegan, and Ranta took a third behind USC and UCLA in the 400 yard freestyle relay in 7:54.1.
