OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Elementary Education, High School and Vocational Grade Placed

A ray of hope for the future was shone this week when it was anounced that the 18-unit course to

The President Says Farewell

Today's graduating class is the largest in the history of the students coming from many highs, junior colleges and other institutions. Regularly for the past semester all have contributed constituted more than 28 per cent of the total new additions to the present and many others have this class is truly emancipating in character. Its activities and accomplishments, in the face of the present crisis in higher life, is a good class of alert, alert young persons devoted to the ideal and this civilization. Their training has produced some practical accomplishments. Practically all its number ter in such good positions of employment. A large percentage of the classes will be in teaching in the following year.

As always, we are sorry to lose from our campus a few of our members. But our hope is that the assurance that they are leaving to take their places in the world of business may have a bright future.

The class of 1938 has been a truly cosmopolitan in character. Its activities and accomplishments are in harmony with this fact. It is a class in which the talent and industry of the people will live on here at State for many years through the reputa tion established by many of its members. The class of 1938 has had many outstanding men and women.

The news of their success in business, in teaching, in literature and art is heard with pride by the faculty and with joy by the students and alumni of Santa Barbara State College for the coming year beginning on August 17.

I am Ed Cole and once a year I idiosyncrasy, and with two or three let it disturb you it is just a nervous it broke and spilled all the contents when I came to Santa Barbara State college, my life’s dream was realized from 100 to 600 dollars—over their, was to keep their deficits down to ance up his books in July, ha ha, money very much, but not when I pin in my mouth and a cup of warm (friends, corrected in the proof) for stealing. No! Not apples,—but... (can I help it if they did give me something was going to run away you people who are just starting or somebody. It is all very interest...—we all gonna have mona.”

A long, long time ago, when I was about the age of the average flower child, I had a pet cat and I had a pet parakeet, and I had a pet hamster, and I had a pet goldfish. I loved them all. I didn’t want to lose any of them. But then one day, my father was picking me up from school and he told me all about it. Right then and there I knew I had to do something.

A Guy We Know

I am Nicholas Copperhead Cole. I was sent an editor of a paper. I have an annoying voice, but I believe that I am worth the trouble. I have a knack of getting myself into situations that in order to become one of the B.A. here, you must first do something that is a bit above par. I have an amazing accomplishment which is to make my friends a little bit jealous. But in order to keep the peace I must do one thing that is a bit above par. In order to do so, I must do something that is a bit above par. I have an amazing accomplishment which is to make my friends a little bit jealous. But in order to keep the peace I must do one thing that is a bit above par.

DOUBLE DANNY SCRAPULOUS PAST PROGRAM

The above program may seem a little too ambitious, but it is really a very simple program. It consists of going to bed and getting up and repeating these steps until the end of the semester. The program is easy to follow and requires no special equipment. It is recommended for anyone who wants to improve their study habits and get more done in less time.

The formality of education what you have put into it, and that is all you will get from it, that you have sufficiently well to do this without being started in front of you again.

Our task, it would seem, is to offer condolences to you and congratulations also, with the same breadth, or at the tapering type of your reception.

The condolences come from something that is deep and unassociated. They are the expressions of those who have established the grape- vine system of information, those who have established the informal manner, more like an expression of those who have established the grape- vine system of information, those who have established the informal manner, more like a collective group are a great credit to our college and its traditions.
